

Dr. Tony Stevenson

1982-85 University of Nottingham. Humanities BA

1985-86 Pre-professional library placement

1986-87 University of Sheffield - MA in Library and Information Science. Winner of Robert Gordon Prize for best library/information science dissertation in the UK

1987-1991 University of Sheffield - PhD: The role of the prison library in the reform and rehabilitation process

1991-93 Barts and the Royal London Hospital Post Doc Research : The construction of algorithms for out of hours medical advice by telephone

1994-97 University of Sheffield/Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Dept of Palliative Medicine
Research Fellow: Factors affecting patient recruitment to RCTs

1997-2010 Associate Director for management of CTs National Cancer Research Institute

2010-2014 University of Nottingham/Queen's Medical Centre, Division of Primary Care.

Research Fellow: Prevention of childhood accidents.

After superannuation he is acting as Reviewer for many peer reviewed journals.

He is a regular visitor to India – Auroville – Pondicherry.